

Wellbeing Services: Your Education Welfare Team

If your health or wellbeing is having an effect on your ability to study, or your studying is creating health problems for you, then our helpful and experienced Education Welfare Team are available to talk to you in a confidential and non-judgemental way about any issues you feel you may need support with.

Our Education Welfare Advisors and Officers are able to offer advice and support, as well as signposting to specialist advice, support services and self-help materials. This support is usually offered via an initial Welfare Meeting or through supportive Health, Wellbeing & Support for Study (HWSS) meetings.

Your Education Welfare staff for Harrison Hub are Lynda Barrell and Shannon Kelly. Please note that, depending on the circumstances, you may speak to or meet with a different member of the team.

If you have any queries or would like to speak to one of the team, we would be very happy to hear from you at welfare.harrison@exeter.ac.uk.

education
welfareteam

Wellbeing Services: Your Education Welfare Team

Your comfort and safety remain our priority so we are pleased to offer flexible appointments. We can speak to you by video-call or phone, or in a face-to-face meeting on campus. Please email your Education Welfare Team at welfare.harrison@exeter.ac.uk for any queries or to arrange an appointment.

Please visit our webpage for more information about the team, along with details of upcoming educational events. <https://www.exeter.ac.uk/students/wellbeing/studentwelfare/>

For any general queries relating to your academic study, please make contact with your Personal Tutor, then your Hub Info Point. If you have a disability or long-term health condition, including Specific Learning Difficulties and Autism Spectrum Conditions, please contact the AccessAbility team.

For additional Wellbeing support information, please visit the Wellbeing Services website to view all of the services and self-help resources that we offer.

education
welfareteam

